IAS NOTICE
NO. 1-4

Organization
30 June 1972

Reorganization of Production Services

1. Effective 3 July 1972 the supporting services of IAS composed of the Publications, Requirements and Support Branches and certain Intelligence Assistant's positions are reorganized into two components: The Production Support Staff and the Administrative Staff. This reorganization is in consonance with the recent Inspector General Survey recommendations that production support and administrative services be realigned and clearly separated.

2. The Production Support Staff will consist of those positions and functions concerned with the publication and editing of IAS publications, requirements management, centralized graphics, information control, equipment maintenance and photographic support. The Administrative Staff will consist of positions and functions concerned with administration, finance, personnel, logistics, training and internal security.

3. [REDACTED] is appointed Chief, and Acting Deputy Chief, Production Support Staff, and Chief, Administrative Staff. [REDACTED]
